A New Waller County Court: A New Beginning

By CARRIE PRAZAK-GOURLEY
 The Waller Times
 On Wednesday, January 7, at 9 a.m., the Waller County Commissioners Court held its inaugural meeting for 2015 at the Waller County Courthouse. Waller County Commissioners for Pct. 3 Jeron Barnett and Pct. 1 John Amsler (the only commissioners remaining from the prior court) were present, as well as newly-sworn-in Commissioners for Pct. 4 Justin Beckendorff and Pct. 2 Russell Klecka. Waller County Judge Trey Duhon presided over the first meeting of the new court.
 Citizens addressing the court deemed the day an historic turning point for Waller County, and all stated they look forward to a new beginning of open and honest government.
 As promised during his campaign, Judge Duhon, pursuant to transparency, videotaped the meeting, and with the assistance of Vince Yokum, President of Waller County Economic Development, intends to stream meetings online in the future, as well as

W.A.R.M. New Facility is Dream Come True

By CARRIE PRAZAK-GOURLEY
 The Waller Times
 After four years of planning and a tremendous amount of hard work, W.A.R.M (Waller Assistance and Restoration Ministry) finally opened its doors on Monday, January 5 at its new location at 40070 Bus. Hwy. 290, behind Waller County Land Company and adjacent to the Waller Post Office. Although no sign is up yet, one is planned, and in the meantime, the gigantic red building is visible from the highway.
 The stunning new facility provides a much needed 10,000 sq. ft. of space, and includes a humongous and well-organized thrift shop area, an assistance office, a huge pantry for donated goods, a chapel, a break room, several offices, and an abundance of storage in the back. The storage area has garage door openings on each end for unloading donated items.

 Ramona Amador, Executive Director, and Kitty McCaig, Assistance Office Director, were both ecstatic and thankful to finally be in the new facility. Amador stated, "We are so grateful, and heartily thank the many donors and volunteers who made this building possible."
 W.A.R.M. was formed by the merger of two long-standing Christian outreach ministries in the Waller area, and uses a Christ-centered approach in providing emergency assistance and restoration to those in need.

By CARRIE PRAZAK-GOURLEY
 The Waller Times
 Daiken Industries, Ltd., the world's largest manufacturer of high-efficiency HVAC products, is aiming to expand its market in North America through its Goodman Global Operations, located in Houston. Daiken has recently purchased 490 acres three miles east of Waller, at the northeast corner of U.S. 290 and Kickapoo Rd.
 The new base near Waller is being established to integrate the four factories that Goodman currently operates in the United States, and will consolidate Houston's current furnace, air conditioning, research and development, and warehouse distribution facilities into one complex.
 Daiken Industries is based in Osaka, Japan and employs more than 50,000 people worldwide.

Drawing of the soon to be built Goodman complex, a world leader in HVAC manufacturing, to be located at the intersection of U.S. 290 and Kickapoo Rd. The project is slated for operation by mid-2016. Internet rendering.

Waller Wonders - Who steals a fire truck?

By NANCY ARNOLD

Fire Department and made off with one of the smaller trucks, a cache of tools, a defibrillator, oxygen equipment, and a medical supply kit.

Karma (the award or consequence for our actions) needs to visit these idiots when they need help and no one can respond ... because someone stole the equipment that could save them! And who has to replace this gear? That you and me, of course. It's doubtful that the thieves pay taxes or attend fundraisers.

Unless this truck and gear is found before you read this, you're looking for a 1997 Ford F350 truck - red, of course - with Rosehill Fire Department in gold lettering on the cab doors. That would be kinda noticeable if you're cruisin' the main drag of Tomball or Magnolia, or maybe Navasota or Montgomery, doncha think?

Not saying these thieves are from one of these places, but they are probably from somewhere nearby.

Sadly, this sort of thing is all too common. Just Google "stolen fire truck" and you'll get a long list of these reports. Many of these trucks are destroyed in a crash - probably because the drivers aren't able to handle them. This isn't like driving a regular vehicle - that's why firefighters go to school to learn how to drive them!

Some are in accidents, many times killing or maiming the people they slam into. Some are even stolen from the scene of a fire - WHILE WATER IS BEING PUMPED ONTO THE FIRE! What is WRONG with these people?

A couple of happy birthday greetings to two of our family's younger generation: Matthew Somers in Dallas and Sarah Engel in Denver.

Happy anniversary to Jeremy and Amy Hurry, and Edwin and Norma Preston.

I don't know who came up with these gems - theme songs for Biblical characters - but they are funny. They will also make you study your Bible a bit to get the reference. I'll give you half the list this week and the other half next week. And yes, as you can tell, this is an old list I found while cleaning out my desk. I may have to work on a more modern version, but in the meantime:

Noah: Raindrops Keep Falling on My Head
Adam and Eve: Strangers in Paradise

Jezebel: The Lady is a Tramp
Lazarus: The Second Time Around

Salome: I Could Have Danced All Night

Daniel: The Lion Sleeps Tonight

Jonah: Got a Whale of a Tale

Joshua: Good Vibrations

Samson: Hair

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego: Great Balls of Fire!

Until next week ...
Contact Nancy at arnoldn@msn.com, or mail news items to her at P. O. Box 282, Waller 77484.

I'll repeat: Who steals a fully loaded fire truck AND bunch of firefighting and emergency medical tools? Apparently there are fools out there who do such a despicable thing. Sometime between midnight and daybreak on Monday, one such person (probably more than one) broke into the Rosehill

31st Sanctity of Human Life Sunday is January 18

By CARRIE PRAZAK-GOURLEY

2015, January 18, the Sunday closest to the Roe v. Wade decision in 1973 legalizing abortion, is designated as the day that churches will use to continue to defend the Biblical claim that all life is sacred.

Since the Supreme Court's decision in 1973, in which the majority opinion stated that abortion would be rare, over 56 million babies have been aborted, and in the U.S., over a million abortions still occur each year.

However, there have been signs of hope. It seems that prayer and the dedication of millions to the cause of life is working. Since the 1990's, seventy-five percent of abortion clinics in America have closed down. There are just 739 remaining, a loss of three-quarters since the country had its highest number in 1991. Seventy-three shut down in 2014 alone, including several in the state of Texas.

Christians recognize that abortion, infanticide and euthanasia are wrong since God is the Author of Life, and we His servants are to protect it. According to His Word, there is no alternative.

While a sanctity of human life ethic may be disparaged by the world, it is God's view. His Word is clear: Human life at all ages and stages is precious.

The culture we live in favors a perspective that we are enhanced primates; as Christians, however, we serve a God who tells us clearly in His Word that we are made in His image. Likening God to a potter, the prophet Isaiah wrote, "We are the work of His hands." (Isaiah 64:8)

A lasting symbol through the decades of the pro-life movement is that of the "Precious Feet". It was Dr. Robert Sacco, a pathologist and avid photographer, who took the photograph that became the official symbol of the movement. Sacco, who shared a lab with a fellow pathologist, could not keep his eyes off the babies his partner stored in formaldehyde. A father of four, he noticed how even the tiniest of unborn children had perfectly formed features, and he took a photograph of ten week old tiny feet.

His photo was first used by the March for Life in 1974, one year after Roe v. Wade, and was part of a full-page ad that was placed in the San Diego Union.

In 1979, the Precious Feet became the official symbol of the movement. Since then, the feet have been made into gold pins, and also play an important role in pro-life literature, and are used on bumper stickers, mugs, and videos.

In the last 20 years, Pregnancy Centers have sprung up across the country. The center is located at 1018 Saunders St. in Waller behind Paragon Antiques.

The center provides free-pregnancy tests, education, support groups and counseling, all free of charge. As a non-profit, the center is always in need of donations, both monetary and also items, such as diapers and baby care items are needed. Donations to the Waller Pregnancy Care Center may also be made online at www.wallerpregnancy-care.org/. Volunteers are always needed as well. Call the center at 936-372-9007 for more information. In his 1984 Proclamation, President Reagan stated words we must not forget, "The first unalienable right affirmed in our Declaration of Independence is the right to life itself, a right the Declaration states has been endowed by our Creator on all human beings--whether young, old, weak or strong, healthy or handicapped."

In regard to the lives lost due to abortion, he stated, "These children, over 10 (now 30) fold the number of Americans lost in all our nation's wars, will never laugh, never sing, or dance.... abortion has denied them of the first and most basic of rights, and we are infinitely poorer for their loss."

Let us this year reaffirm President Reagan's plea, "I call upon the citizens of this blessed land to gather in their homes and places of worship to give thanks

See GOURLEY page 3A

On January 13, 1984, President Ronald Reagan issued a Proclamation designating January 22 of that year the first National Sanctity of Human Life Sunday. Churches across the United States gathered to celebrate God's gift of life, to commemorate the many lives lost to abortion, and commit themselves to protecting life at every stage.

Although President Obama discontinued the Proclamation in 2009, the day is still recognized by churches across America. In

Letter to the Editor

When To Tip?

When is it appropriate to tip? On cruise ships, usually at the end of the cruise. How much depends on how much fun you had and didn't have to clean your own sheets and towels. When flowers are delivered $5 or more depending on how much they brighten your day. During the Christmas season it means a great deal to give a card and maybe- $5 for a cup of coffee or hot chocolate to the mail-carrier (just leave it in the mailbox with "mail carrier" on the envelope), and garbage truck driver, if you can catch them.

Getting a manicure/pedicure or hair cut/style then you should tip the person doing it $5 or more. How great did that massage feel? Tip according to how good of a job they did?

Think of when you or your children were in college, many paid for their living expenses on tips alone. The pizza delivery person or other food delivery, think of eating out where a 15-20% tip is customary.

When staying at a hotel it is wise to tip $3-5 to housekeeping, you will find that fewer items may be missing and they will usually do a better job. Just leave a note "for housekeeping, thank you".

Wasn't it great not to have to leave your comfy dwelling

The choir students of Waller ISD put their angelic voices on display as they travelled around the school district community to share their beautiful music and Christmas cheer. Students from the Waller High School Show and Tour Choir travelled to the District's elementary schools, the Hockley Community Center, and the Waller ISD Administration Building to sing the holiday carols they have been perfecting over the last few months. The Show and Tour Choir is composed of a collection of Waller High School students from Cherith Wells' choir classes in first through fourth period. The students voluntarily joined the choir and learned songs in addition to the ones they learned in their choir class in order to be in the Show and Tour choir. The dedicated students from the Show and Tour choir sang Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer, Gonna Catch that Santa, We Wish you a Merry Christmas, Christmas is Coming and We Are Getting Fat!, Sparklejollytwinklejingley brightened the day of everyone who heard them. archive the meetings for future reference. Also, in a nod to transparency, all executive sessions, Duhon stated, will be recorded so that there will be no further reliance on handwritten notes.

In an agenda item regarding an appointment for 2015 to the Waller County Sub-Regional Planning Committee, Duhon suggested that he be reappointed, stating that continuity and knowledge of coordination is important in dealing with the upcoming issues of the power transmission lines, and the high speed rail.

During subsequent discussion, Commissioner Barnett suggested a workshop with area planning committees in order to inform the public of current issues planning committees are dealing with in our area and detailing their operation to the public.

The court then unanimously voted to reappoint Judge Duhon to the committee.

The court then went into executive session at 9:23 a.m. of interest to execute conflict of interest for the District Attorney, Elton Mathis, and his employees on matters related to Pintail Landfill, including the "Host Agreement" and litigation involving the landfill. The court reconvened at 10:06 a.m. and unanimously voted to execute a conflict of interest for the District Attorney's office in aforementioned matters.

A second executive session was called at 10:10 a.m. for discussion and possible action regarding the case entitled City of Hempstead and Citizens Against the Landfill in Hempstead v. Waller County, Texas and the Host Agreement between Waller County and Pintail Landfill, L.L.C. regarding consultation with attorney. No action was taken after the session.

Following the executive session, a workshop on aspects of the Texas Open Meetings Act and the Texas Public Information Act was given by District Attorney Elton Mathis. Several elected officials and members of the public were present.

According to Amador, W.A.R.M. serves the Waller area, particularly the area covered by the Waller Independent School District, but accepts everyone on a case by case basis.

The Assistance Office provides supplemental food, clothing, and personal assistance--such as help with electric, gas, rent--to families that establish a need. A social worker is also on staff to assist families going through hard times.

Food administered by W.A.R.M. to the community is purchased through shop sales and generous donations of local citizens, churches, businesses, and by food drives held by schools in the Waller Independent School District throughout the year.

Before opening its doors at the new location on January 5 at 10 a.m., employees and volunteers gathered, as they always do, in a heartfelt prayer of thanks and praise. W.A.R.M. employs four full time and two part time employees and usually about 10 volunteers assist daily at the facility. Hours are Monday, Thursday, and Saturday from 10 a.m. - 2 p.m., and Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday from 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.

W.A.R.M. often serves families in danger of homelessness due to a sudden emergency or job loss and strives to direct these clients to

On opening day, American and Texas flags were presented to W.A.R.M. by local Woodman of the World Chapter #2053. Woodman's is a 124-year-old national fraternal organization. Presenting the flag to W.A.R.M. were Dorothy Dunsworth, field representative for Woodmen, Aggie Uherek, president of the local chapter, Billie Atkins, secretary, and Dwight Atkins.

Donations, both monetary and gently used clothing, furniture, books, music and other goods benefit the ministry. Also, the ministry is always in need of volunteers. Call 936-372-5173 for further information about volunteering.

The new W.A.R.M. Facility is located at 40070 Bus. Hwy. 290, directly behind Waller County Land Company, and adjacent to the Waller Post Office. Photo credit: Carrie Prazak-Gourley, The Waller Times.

Do you tip your spouse for doing that?

When tipping at restaurants it is customary to tip 15-20% or more if they did an outstanding job. Don't always blame the waitress for messing up an order. The waitress usually isn't to blame so don't take tips away from the waitress when the kitchen staff make wages and she did her job to the best of her ability.

In small towns like ours we don't have too many places to choose from for good cooking. The few we have hire local people and want to make the best food possible. To keep a good staff working at these places they need to make money and that only comes from their tips so be generous and show how much you enjoy having someone else cook the food and clean up after you.
